You are signing your request under penalty of perjury; you must answer truthfully and accurately. The Court may ask you for information or evidence. You may be ordered to go to court and answer questions about your ability to pay court obligations and to provide proof that you are eligible for the Community Service Program or have the ability to pay the traffic fine. You may also be ordered to pay if it is later determined that you were not eligible for Community Service or had the ability to pay the traffic fine.
